Shaping your personal pathway

Everybody will have their unique route comprising a different combination and priority of Working, Learning, Playing and Giving. Take a look at your Golden Ticket and identify which of these four routes would be a good place to start. Be true to yourself when you are developing yours. The examples below may help.

Working

Find meaningful work experiences and opportunities that help you get to the point where you can connect roles that interest you and maximise your strengths, in organisations and sectors that appeal to you. Consider getting involved in project opportunities, employer visits or information interviews with people who work in areas that appeal to you.

Learning

Ensure you are achieving your star potential by identifying the further learning you may need to take to help you get closer to your goals. Design this so that it links your aspirations (passions, interests, motivations and values) with the needs of your target employers (attitudes, skills, experiences and qualifications)

Playing

Create time and space to enjoy yourself, develop your confidence and grow by meeting new people and developing your social circle. This may involve joining a group who share a common interest, spending time with like-minded people who believe in you, or exposing yourself to new possibilities, places and people.

Giving

Try to think outside the box by using volunteering as a stepping stone to gain new skills, contacts and experience. Start by helping family and friends. Move on to look at opportunities to 'give back' locally in your community, in your institution or with your employer. Focus on purposes meaningful to you.
